THE ART OF TRAVELING

When you pack your bags to explore the beauties of the world, consider these keys to a happy journey:

特派: TRAVEL LIGHTLY. You are not traveling for people to see you.

特派: TRAVEL EXPECTANTLY. Every place you visit is like a surprise package to be opened. Untie the strings with an expectation of high adventure.

特派: TRAVEL HOPEFULLY. "To travel hopefully," wrote Robert Louis Stevenson, "is better than to arrive."

特派: TRAVEL HUMBLY. Visit people and places with reverence and respect for their traditions and ways of life.

特派: TRAVEL COURTEOUSLY. Consideration for your fellow travelers and your hosts will smooth the way through the most difficult days.

特派: TRAVEL GRATEFULLY. Show appreciation for the many things that are being done by others for your enjoyment and comfort.

特派: TRAVEL WITH AN OPEN MIND. Leave your prejudices at home:

特派: TRAVEL WITH CURIOSITY. It is not how far you go, but how deeply you go that mines the gold of experience. Thoreau wrote a big book about the tiny Walden Pond.

特派: TRAVEL WITH IMAGINATION. As the old Spanish proverb puts it, "He who would bring home the wealth of the Indies, must carry the wealth of the Indies with him."

特派: TRAVEL FEARLESSLY. Banish worry and timidity; the world and its people belong to you just as you belong to the world.

特派: TRAVEL RELAXED. Make up your mind to have a good time.

特派: TRAVEL PATIENTLY. It takes time to understand others, especially when there are barriers of language and custom; keep flexible and adaptable to all situations.

特派: TRAVEL WITH THE SPIRIT OF A WORLD CITIZEN. You'll discover that people are basically much the same the world around. Be an ambassador of good will to all people.
